My Fellow Explorer,

Earth Tag is a unique game that combines elements of identification, nature, and the great outdoors. Play alone or with a friend—you'll be amazed at how many things there are just waiting for you to "tag" and name them!

Start exploring with the activities described below, or use your imagination to think of your very own games and adventures!

TREE-MENDOUS MISSION

There are many different kinds of trees, outside, each with its own special characteristics, branches, and leaf shapes.

Identify, take aim, and "tag" four different trees. Write down your accomplishments, and then next time, seek out other tree specimens to add to your total.

BEAT THE CLOCK

This race against time is especially fun to play with a friend. First, make a list of 12 unbreakable objects you see outside. Using a watch or stopwatch, set a time limit of 60, 90, or 120 seconds, then "tag" as many of the items on the list as possible within the time limit. The player with the highest score wins!
